

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

Honorees for this award are nominated by students and faculty and chosen by a committee with representatives from the student body, the faculty, and student development.

A cumulative grade point average of 3.3 and demonstrated leadership on campus are among the requirements for this award.

Melissa Cairns	Heidi Klaassen	Ruth Springer
Jessica Emoto	Benjamin Loewen	Braden Vix
Casey Guthals	Laura Pankratz	Molly Wiebe Faber
Kianna Hinerman	Maryn Robson	Benjamyn Wieler
Brooke Holloway	Kari Schmidt	Annaliese Wiens

NAIA All-America Scholar-Athletes

To be considered an NAIA Academic All-American, a student must meet these three criteria:

- 1. have achieved Junior academic status*
- 2. have a 3.50 or higher cumulative GPA*
- 3. transfers must have completed at least one full year of attendance at the nominating institution and freshmen must have completed two full years of attendance at the nominating institution.*

Baseball Jaxson Hooge Caleb Richert Graham Wiebe	Soccer Bransyn Felty Thomas Gaskell Drew Janzen Josie Patterson Kaitlyn Regier Carly Rowan Jordan Walters	Tennis Jessica Emoto Heidi Klaassen Celeste Worthy	Basketball/ Soccer Nicole Decker
Basketball Amber Bonham Jordan Horstick Kyle Huxman Sierra Sanchez Kaleigh Troxell	Softball Brianna Quiroz	Track &amp; Field Sarah Hagen Ashton Kroeker Daniel Quiring	Basketball/ Volleyball Tena Loewen
Cross Country Katey Whitesell	Swimming &amp; Diving Kianna Hinerman Sarah Schulte Kelly Smith Angela Smith	Volleyball Kimberly Hockley Brooke Holloway Sydney Peitz Megan Voth	Track &amp; Field/ Cross Country Thomas Bacon Avery Franz
Football Michael Andrews Spencer Baalman Michael Griffin		Basketball/Cross Country Maggie Ramirez	Track &amp; Field/ Volleyball Amy Horner

Dean's Scholars

These awards are based solely on academic achievement, regardless of the field of study.

- 1) Both resident and transfer students are eligible for this award. Among the criteria is a resident grade point average of 3.9.

Dean's Scholars

Alyssa Abbott	Tena Loewen
Stacie Bell	Shannon Martens
Melissa Cairns	Taryn McReynolds
Austin Calam	Matthew Molden
Alisa Ediger	Rachael Morris
Morgan Ediger	Oscar Moyano
Philip Ediger	Laurie Nafe
Jessica Emoto	Alison Nikkel
Lauren Fox	Lydia Quiring
Brandon Garcia	Timothy Regier
Ashlynn Hamm	Caleb Richert
Miranda Hiett	Maryn Robson
Jordan Horstick	Sierra Sanchez
Tiffany Huxman	Courtney Schmidt
Alex Janzen	Ruth Springer
Drew Janzen	Kaleigh Troxell
Zachary Krehbiel	Timothy Vinduska
Ashton Kroeker	Molly Wiebe Faber
Benjamin Loewen	Annaliese Wiens
Julianne Loewen

Education and Applied Arts Division Awards

Business

Thomas Bacon – for academic achievement and potential future success in the field of accounting

Thomas Gaskell – for academic excellence, arduous work ethic, dependability, and future potential in the fields of Sport Management and Marketing

Jonathan Gibson – for academic achievement and potential future success in the field of accounting

Kianna Hinerman – for academic excellence, a positive attitude, dependability, honesty, integrity, leadership, and future Godly stewardship and potential in the fields of Marketing and Management

Kristen Martens – for academic excellence, a positive attitude, dependability, and future potential in the field of Marketing

Matthew Molden – for academic excellence, integrity, dependability, and future Godly stewardship and potential in the field of Management

Rachael Morris – for academic excellence, integrity, dependability, and future potential in the field of Management

Caleb Richert – for academic excellence, dependability, integrity, and future Godly stewardship and potential in the field of Management

Matthew Robinson – for academic excellence, a positive attitude, dependability, leadership, and potential in the field of Sports Marketing and Management

Josh Wiebe – for academic excellence, a positive attitude, honesty, leadership, and future Godly stewardship and potential in the field of Marketing

Celeste Worthy – for academic achievement and potential future success in the field of marketing

Education

These students exemplify the goals of the Teacher Ed Program; Commitment, Christian Values, Competence, Compassion and Collaboration. They serve Christ and his kingdom by showing a commitment to teaching and a genuine love for students. Each displays Christian values within the teaching profession, demonstrating competence in their knowledge and ability to perform high quality instruction, showing compassion and reliably accepting the responsibilities of collaboration.

Tena Loewen
Kaleigh Troxell

Health/P.E.

Bailey Burnett – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program through athletic training, and potential for success as an athletic trainer

Mikaelyn Dick – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program through athletic training, and potential for success as an occupational therapist

Jacob Jones – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program, and potential for success in the profession

Laurie Nafe – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program through athletic training, and potential for success as an athletic trainer

Kaitlyn Regier – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program through athletic training, and potential for success as an athletic trainer

Katey Whitesell – for academic achievement, contributions to the Tabor athletic program, and potential for success as a health and physical educator

Kansas Athletic Trainers' Society

First Team All-Academic Honors

Amber Bonham, Mikaelyn Dick, Laurie Nafe, Kaitlyn Regier, Jordan Walters

Second Team All-Academic Honors

Bailey Burnett, Kendra Faul, Makayla Wassenberg

Honorable Mention All-Academic Honors

Ruby-Anne Fines, Ashlynn Hamm, Shanae Strate

Jenessa J. Hlad Memorial Scholarship

Ashlynn Hamm

Dr. Karol Hunt Sport Management Scholarship

Dr. Hunt's father and stepmother both passed away during the 2012-13 school year. Each lived a life of devoted service to church ministry. To honor their legacy, she has established an endowed scholarship. It is awarded annually to a Physical Education major who is focused on academics and sport management. This year's recipient is Tristen Leiszler.

Robert Watson Memorial Award

Philip Ediger

Humanities Division Awards

Bible, Religion & Philosophy

Alisa Ediger – for intellectual curiosity, high academic achievement, and commitment to using her gifts for Jesus' kingdom

Justin Goble – for academic growth and passion for ministry

Alex Janzen – for intellectual curiosity, high academic achievement, and commitment to using his gifts for Jesus' kingdom

John Jedneak – for academic growth, intellectual curiosity, and ministry leadership capacity

Matthew Molden – for high academic achievement, love of Scripture, and capacity for ministry leadership

Garrett Nikkel – for intellectual curiosity, high academic achievement, and leadership capacity

Josh Wiebe – for commitment to ministry and leadership capacity

Communications, Language and Literature:

Bailey Kaufman – for dedication to excellent scholarship in the study of literature, superior writing skills in academics, as staff writer in the college advancement office, as an intern at the Hillsboro Free Press, service as a writing center tutor, and leadership as editor of The Tabor View.

Maggie Ramirez – for the willingness to seek and receive feedback regarding scholarship and the motivation to be a life-long learner.

Kaitlyn Rempel – for dependability as a teaching assistant for Intercultural Communication classes and thorough and conscientious scholarship in communication courses.

History:

MacKenzie Bilbrey – for service to the field of History and potential in the field of public history and policy

Ethan Reichmann – for commitment to high-quality history education and potential as a secondary educator

Mark Hodges – for service to the department and a commitment to always asking the hard questions

Joshua Davidson – for excellent scholarship in political science

Tabor Bible Award

Each year the Tabor Bible professors confer the Tabor Bible Award upon a deserving student who best demonstrates the qualities of research, creativity, and clear communication required to achieve excellence in the inductive Bible study projects known as FORRMALS.

This year's winners are Alisa Ediger and Alex Janzen.

Natural, Mathematical, Social, and Behavioral Sciences Division Awards

Biology

Drew Janzen – for excellence in academics and for service as Science Club President

Daniel Quiring – for work in the Biology Department and for potential as a high school teacher

Chemistry

Amy Horner – for excellence in both chemistry and math

Mathematics

Kaleigh Troxell – for scholarship and service to the department

Tim Regier – for scholarship

Macy Root – for scholarship and service to the department

Alisa Ediger – for scholarship and service to the department

Alex Janzen – for scholarship and service to the department

Social Sciences:

John Jedneak – for outstanding scholarship in the field of psychology

Macy Root – for outstanding scholarship in the field of psychology

Austin Conway – for outstanding leadership and academic excellence

Zachary Krehbiel – for academic excellence, including engaging and synthesizing course information beyond requirements, and for living out his faith in a compelling way

Lori Mathies – for scholarship and an aptitude for the practice of social work

American Chemical Society Freshman Award Ally Simpson

Outstanding Research Project Alisa Ediger

Outstanding Oral Research Project Alisa Ediger

William J. Johnson Scholarships Ben Loewen

Solomon L. Loewen Scholarship Jessica Emoto
Annaliese Wiens

Richard Wall Memorial Scholarship Heidi Klaassen
Sydney Peitz

Outstanding Environmental Biologist Brenna Cooper

Don C. and Frieda K. Peters Scholarship Julianne Loewen

First Year Calculus Award Abby Decker
Lindsay Crist

David B. Wiens Memorial Scholarship Alisa Ediger

Jane Addams Award of Excellence Michael Andrews

Performing and Visual Arts Division Awards

Music

Michael Beye – in recognition of four years of contributions to and leadership in choral ensembles, Symphonic Band, Contemporary Christian Music Bands, and for performance as a Messiah soloist

Elisha Cairns – in recognition of four years of contributions to and leadership in Symphonic Band

Tyler Funk – in recognition of contributions to and leadership in Concert Choir

Justin Goble – in recognition of commitment and contributions to Concert Choir

Alex Janzen – in recognition of commitment and contributions to Symphonic Band and Contemporary Christian Music Band

Ashton Kroeker – in recognition of contributions to and leadership in Concert Choir

Kristen Martens – in recognition of commitment and contributions to Concert Choir and Concerto Bella Voce, and to Contemporary Christian Music Band

Matthew Molden – in recognition of commitment and contributions to Concert Choir and Contemporary Christian Music Bands

Rachael Morris – in recognition of contributions to and leadership in Concert Choir and Chamber Voices, and for solo performance in opera and oratorio productions

Kyndra Mullins – in recognition of contributions to and leadership in Concert Choir

Daniel Quiring – in recognition of contributions to and leadership in Concert Choir

Holly Reimer – in recognition of commitment and contributions to choral ensembles and Contemporary Christian Music Band

Kaitlyn Rempel – in recognition of four years of contributions to choral and instrumental music ensembles, for performance in musical theater pit orchestras, and for service as an accompanist and piano teacher in the Preparatory School

Seth Shields – in recognition of four years of contributions to Symphonic Band

Rebecca Strobridge – in recognition of commitment and contributions to Concert Choir and Concerto Bella Voce

Faith Tonne – in recognition of four years of commitment and contributions to Concert Choir, and performance as a Messiah soloist

Theater

Michael Adamyk – for demonstrated talent and dedication to the theater program

Danielle Armstrong – for dedication and creative service to the program

Austin Calam – Swiss Army Knife Award – for applying a range of talents in support of productions

Katherine Coleman – Stage Management Award – for skillful management of a production and dedicated service to the program

Alisa Ediger – Veteran Award – for sustained dedication, outstanding leadership, and service in theater

Anna Fruechting – Emerging Talent Award – for demonstrating commitment to the program and potential to grow as an actor

Hannah Klaassen – Emerging Talent Award – for demonstrating commitment to the program and potential to grow as an actor

Cody Kroeker – Spirit Award – for bringing energy and a heart of service to the theater program

Reuven Isaac – for dedication, leadership, and demonstrated excellence in theater

Dominic Marotta – for demonstrated talent and dedication to the program

David Nelson – for demonstrated talent and commitment to growth as an actor

Megan Tschohl – Outstanding Newcoming Award – for dedication to productions and growth as an actor

Molly Wiebe Faber – for dedication, leadership, service, and demonstrated excellence in theater

Visual Arts

Jan Tschichold Award for Typography: Shannon Martens

For commitment to fine typographic form.

Paul Rand Award for Graphic Design: Mariah Kliewer, Laura Pankratz

For producing an outstanding portfolio of graphic design.

Silver Pushpin Award: Micah Allen

For outstanding conceptual work and substantive contributions during critique.

Rembrandt Award for Painting: Kristyn Wedel

For diligent effort and outstanding work in the painting studio.

Käthe Kollwitz Award for Drawing: Seth Loyd, Shara Tanner

For diligent effort and outstanding work in the drawing studio.

Sister Corita Kent Award for Attitude and Effort: Rebecca Strobridge, Austin Calam
For consistent and diligent effort in the studio and for being supportive and generous with classmates.

Josef and Anni Albers Award for Most Promising Newcomers: Riley Loewen, Marissa Graf
For exceptional commitment to developing your God-given talent.

Seymour Chwast Award for Illustration: Braden Vix
For skill in creating memorable imagery

Jonah C. Kliewer Choral Music Award Casey Guthals

Jake and Selma Friesen Award Ruth Springer

Hiebert Outstanding Student Merit Award

Honorees for this award are nominated by students and faculty, and chosen by a committee with representatives from the student body, the faculty, and student development.

A cumulative grade point average of 3.3 and demonstrated leadership on campus are among the criteria required for this award.

Hiebert Family History

Kornelius Hiebert was the father of J. K. Hiebert, who was the first Chair of the Tabor College Board, and the father of P. C. Hiebert, who was the first Vice President of Tabor College. The Hiebert family all attended the Ebenfeld Mennonite Brethren Church outside town. They were strong supporters of MB education. Consequently, the family honored their father by establishing this scholarship award.

Award Criteria

This honor and monetary scholarship endowed by the descendants of Kornelius Hiebert are awarded each year to one male and one female student based on the following criteria:

“To perpetuate the scholarship, faith, leadership and desire to serve that characterized the founders of Tabor College.”

This year’s honorees are Maryn Robson and Braden Vix.

The Clarence R. Hiebert Excellence in Teaching Award

This award is given annually to the faculty member who best exemplifies the qualities of excellent teaching at Tabor College. These qualities include:

- A strong Christian commitment
- Record of excellence in teaching, as shown by peer and student reviews. The faculty member will have completed at least one three-year evaluation at Tabor College.
- Evidence of integrating faith and learning.
- Commitment to Tabor College as an institution, as shown in support of departments outside one's own area.

This year's recipient of the Clarence R. Hiebert Excellence in Teaching Award is Dr. Rick Bartlett.