

Assistant/Associate Professor of Psychology, Graduate Program Director

Tabor College is seeking a tenure-track faculty candidate to teach in the social and behavioral science department at both undergraduate and graduate levels. In addition, the candidate will help develop and lead a Master's program in psychology (likely school counseling). This position also facilitates program accreditation needs in consultation with the Executive Vice President of Academics and Compliance. Other responsibilities include vocational mentoring, academic advising, recruiting, committee service, participating in the program's social media presence, and additional duties as assigned or needed.

Qualifications:

- Terminal degree required.
- Commitment to teaching and service in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.

Rank/Salary

Commensurate with faculty salary schedule.

Beginning Date:

August 2023.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

Letter of application

Current curriculum vitae

Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)

List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and proceed until conclusion of search process.

Tabor College is a Christian liberal arts institution with a mission to prepare people for a life of learning, work, and service for Christ and his kingdom. The successful candidate must readily embrace the mission (see <http://tabor.edu/about/mission-vision-values/>) and theological identity of Tabor College (<https://tabor.edu/about/theological-identity/>).

Women and Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Tabor College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. As an educational institution operating under the auspices of the United States Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, Tabor College is permitted, and reserves the right, to prefer employees on the basis of Religion (Title VII, Section 702-703, United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended).