

Visiting Assistant Professor of History

Tabor College announces a faculty opening for a Visiting Assistant Professor of History. The faculty member's primary responsibility will include teaching undergraduate US history courses. The ideal candidate will also be able to teach selected European and non-Western history or political science. Other responsibilities include advising, recruiting, committee service and additional duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

- PhD in history preferred; ABD considered.
- Two years of teaching experience preferred.
- Commitment to teaching and service in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.
- A creative approach to innovation and program development highly desired.

Rank/Salary

Commensurate with faculty salary schedule.

Beginning Date:

August 2023.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

- Letter of application
- Current curriculum vitae
- Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)
- List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email (preferred) to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and proceed until the position is filled.

Tabor College is a Christian liberal arts institution with a mission to prepare people for a life of learning, work, and service for Christ and his kingdom. The successful candidate must readily embrace the mission (see <http://tabor.edu/about/mission-vision-values/>) and theological identity of Tabor College (<https://tabor.edu/about/theological-identity/>).

Women and Minority candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

Tabor College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. As an educational institution operating under the auspices of the United States Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, Tabor College is permitted, and reserves the right, to prefer employees on the basis of Religion (Title VII, Section 702-703, United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended).