

Professor of Psychology and Graduate Program Developer/Director

Tabor College is seeking a tenure-track faculty candidate to teach psychology in the social and behavioral science (SBS) department at both undergraduate and graduate levels. In addition, the candidate will help develop a Master's program in counseling (emphasis TBD). Other responsibilities include academic advising, recruiting, committee service, and additional duties as assigned or needed.

Qualifications:

- Terminal degree required.
- Teaching experience preferred.
- Clinical practice experience preferred.
- Commitment to teaching and service in the context of a Christian liberal arts college is essential.
- A creative approach to innovation and program development highly desired.

Rank/Salary

Commensurate with faculty salary schedule.

Beginning Date:

August 2025.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

Letter of application

Current curriculum vitae

Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)

List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and proceed until conclusion of search process.

Tabor College is a Christian liberal arts institution with a mission to prepare people for a life of learning, work, and service for Christ and his kingdom. The successful candidate must readily embrace the mission (see <http://tabor.edu/about/mission-vision-values/>) and theological identity of Tabor College (<https://tabor.edu/about/theological-identity/>).

Women and underrepresented groups are encouraged to apply.

Tabor College is an Equal Opportunity Employer. As an educational institution operating under the auspices of the United States Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches, Tabor College is permitted, and reserves the right, to prefer employees on the basis of Religion (Title VII, Section 702-703, United States Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended).