

Director of Worship Arts

Tabor College announces an opening for the Director of Worship Arts, a leadership position dedicated to building upon the College's strong tradition of student-led worship and developing it into a regionally recognized resource for excellent worship leadership. The Director of Worship Arts will actively recruit and mentor students, collaborate with Enrollment to grow participation in Contemporary Christian Music (CCM), and provide visionary leadership that equips future worship leaders and advances Christ's Kingdom through music and worship. This position is divided among CCM Director (50%), providing leadership through recruiting, training, and directing CCM ensembles for chapels and external worship engagements; Technical Director (25%), coordinating sound, video, and production support for performing arts activities; and Teaching Responsibilities (25%), teaching undergraduate courses as needed.

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree preferred, experienced worship leaders without graduate degrees will be considered.
- Two years of direct experience or four years in a related area required.
- Direct experience with technical direction preferred.
- Ability to utilize strong interpersonal, oral, and written communication skills.
- Commitment to Christian faith and the college's Christian liberal arts mission is essential.

Beginning Date:

August 2026.

Candidates are requested to submit the following:

- Letter of application
- Current curriculum vitae
- Transcripts (unofficial accepted for initial review)
- List of 3-5 references that can be contacted if necessary

Send application materials via email (preferred) to facultysearch@tabor.edu.

Closing Date:

Review of applications will begin immediately and proceed until the position is filled.
